

PRETTYLITTLETHING

Off-duty Obsession

Our girl Molly-Mae is back with her new season edit for every off-duty occasion.

Following the launch of Molly's latest edit, PrettyLittleThing and Molly have decided to donate 100% of profits to MIND Charity.

MIND provide advice and support to empower anyone experiencing mental health problems. They campaign to improve services, raise awareness and promote understanding surrounding mental health.

Her latest picks will have you serving up those off-duty LA vibes in soft brushed loungewear, figure hugging jumpsuits, essential oversized tees and everything in between. Stay comfy but serve up the sauce in killer thigh high boots and a fresh jumper dress. Whether you're catching flights not feelings, got a date with your best ones or just wanna switch up your weekend wardrobe, we've got the looks you need to nail that cool Californian vibe.

The edit serves up 48 killer styles. Available in sizes 6 – 26 with prices starting from €15.
